Footnotes

ONEMORESWEETKISS hustled to the lead off the rail to show the way, edged clear from the three eighths pole, drifted into the lane but dug in under steady stretch handling to hold on well. VANESSAK chased the early pace toward the inside, eased four wide leaving the turn and dueled for place inside the sixteenth pole. REALLY BULLISH gave chase about the three path then outfinished for place. MARK OF A POST chased the earlier pace toward the outside, rounded the turn about the three path, eased out entering the stretch and finished evenly. SING THE BLUES gave close early chase off the rail then leveled out inside the sixteenth pole. TIDEWATER, outside through the backstretch, saved ground on the turn. NODEBTDANNY bobbled leaving the gate and was not a factor racing toward mid track.
