Footnotes

THATS COOL MAN stalked the pace on the outside taking the turn in the six path, was clear by the quarter pole and won driving. APRIL COLOR tracked the pace setters and had a strong rally inside the final furlong. BUZZING BY THEM was void of early speed well off the field, stayed towards the back then drifted in suddenly around the three sixteenths, began to get traction and angled out at the sixteenth with a closing run. BOOKMAKER chased the pace the whole way and had a game run along the rail in the stretch. MR. TALENT had a comfortable lead most of the way and was asked for run at the three eighths pole, continued on a bit but labored late. WILLIE WEARS PINK chased the pace going four wide then lacked the needed rally. JERSEY KING was fractious in the gate then got up to stalk the pace between horses, went five wide turning for home and finished evenly. KITSTRICKORTREAT was no factor. FRENCH PARADOX showed little. ROYAL GEORGE stumbled very badly at the start falling to his knees and was never recovered for a run.
