ENDLESS RIDE tracked the pace on the outside going four wide around the first turn, sat comfortably off the pace then rallied very well in the stretch to get up in time for the win. WANDO'S REBEL had a comfortable lead from the start then dug in when collared then was sniped just before the wire. BENANTI lunged at the star then showed no early speed running at the back of the pace, took the four path into the stretch and closed very well. VIRGINIA ROSE was in no hurry in the early going then took the three path into the stretch with a solid rally. SISTER JANICE chased the pace throughout going three wide around the first turn, moved in to the rail in the stretch then finished evenly. MUTTAK BABY tracked the pace along the inside then finished up evenly. EIGHT DANCERS was no factor. SENORITA SIETE was through after half a mile.
