Footnotes

CURLIN CRUSH, saving ground in second flight, drifted out badly under left handed pressure through deep stretch, brushed KEY CHEYNE lightly while getting up in the final stride. MR. CHARLES, between second flight, eased out wider after six furlongs, rallied to take the lead in deep stretch but then was nailed on the wire. KEY CHEYNE set the pace in the four path, remained clear mid stretch, was brushed lightly in the final yards in a sharp effort. EXTROVERT saved ground early, swung to the outside on final turn, was carried wider into stretch and was no real threat. ROCKY THE KID raced very wide and failed to menace. EASTERN FRONT, very wide in second flight, bore out into stretch and gave way. DANCE THE RAILS saved ground and failed to menace. STRIKE IT NOW steadied after the start and then was no factor.
