Footnotes

MAXIMIAN settled inside, rallied three wide into the final turn, swung four wide into the stretch and quickly drew clear leaving the furlongs grounds. RICK'S BOY had position three wide around the first turn, moved to vie between horses on the backstretch, remained prominent two wide into the stretch but couldn't stay with the winner. GREY GATOR rallied close to the inside around the final turn, moved closer into the final furlong, angled out then flattened out. CLOUD CHASER moved to a clear lead along the inside into the first turn, held on into early stretch, came out from the rail and weakened. GHOSTLY GAMES trailed into the stretch then passed tired ones. TRUE TO THE MOON was close up two wide between horses early then tired. HAITIAN HILL threw his head into the air just as the doors opened and left a few lengths behind the field, advanced outside on the backstretch, vied three wide on the final turn then tired. BARLEY TWIST came out four wide while advancing on the first turn, remained close for a half then stopped.
