Footnotes

BREVIARY saved ground and rated off of a contested pace, eased out leaving the three eighths then circled four wide into the stretch, closed in nicely under left handed asking, struck the top heading to the sixteenth pole then drew out while kept to task. ACADIAN GIRL vied two wide and to the outside of SAMMIE SUNSHINE, took over from that one heading towards the far turn, shook clear with three eighths remaining, was under a ride to hold the front into the lane, could not resist the winner leaving mid stretch but kept on with effort to remain clear of the rest. MI CLEOPATRA AND I, keen early while four wide, pulled her way forward and took aim outside the leaders, gave hard chase of ACADIAN GIRL into the lane, remained a presence to mid stretch then flattened out. SIERRA LEONA, three wide and outside the winner through the backstretch run, came up empty when called upon past the three eighths, pulled up about a sixteenth of a mile after the race and was vanned off. SAMMIE SUNSHINE took a short lead early on while towards the rail, was hounded by ACADIAN GIRL, failed to kick on with that one departing the three eighths pole and gave way. BONITA LASSIE stumbled and went to her nose at the break, found herself well back while saving ground and failed to make any real headway.
