BRONX BOYS pressed the pace from the outside of rivals, raced three deep near the quarter pole, cleared off through the upper stretch and prevailed late under strong handling. TOWN'S WARRIOR settled off the early pace setters, moved up three to four wide through the far turn and finished gamely to the wire. MITROPANOS stalked the pace from the outside racing in hand, raced four wide around the far turn and had no final winning bid. ANNA'S GOT STYLE pressed the early pace between rivals and weakened through the drive. TIZ DONEGAL raced mid pack early on, was five wide near the three sixteenths pole and had no response. STIFLING HEAT set a pressured early pace along the inside and faded in the stretch run. CHUCK ADAMS failed to response. BRIGHT CHARGER raced near the back early on, lost ground and was eased up on late.
