HEARD ON THESTREET , patiently rated two wide and just off the embattled leading trio past the three eighths, worked through a seam soon into the lane, wrested command inside rivals leaving mid stretch, sparred with FIVE DREAMS then edged clear under a solid drive. FIVE DREAMS , with the pace three wide outside the leader, gained a slim lead between foes mid turn, battled on past mid stretch and continued on gamely to the wire. THE BOY'S WARRIOR stumbled outward at the break, quickly recovered and rated four wide tracking the dueling leaders, moved up and bid three deep mid turn, fought on near even terms outside foes in mid stretch, failed to go on leaving the sixteenth pole and weakened. ORTHO STAR sped up to the inside of runners to take over near the five eighths, dueled into and around the turn, stayed on to about mid stretch then gave in. EAGLES CRY was angled well off the rail nearing the half, lost ground four to five wide past the five sixteenths and lacked a bid. ONEOFTHEGOODGUYS broke slowly, saved ground into the turn but failed to muster up a rally. PRADO ROAD , nudged along in the clear and well off the rail heading to the half, shifted wider for the drive and faded.
